

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 13, 1889.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

OMAHA.

No advertisements will be taken for these columns after 12:30 p.m.

TERMS—Cash in advance.

Advertisements under this head 10 cents per line for the first insertion; 1 cent for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements taken for less than 20 cents the first insertion. Seven words will be counted to the line, and each additional word will be paid in ADVANCE. All advertisements must be paid in before 12:30 o'clock p.m., and under no circumstances will they be accepted after that hour.

Parties advertising in these columns and having their answers addressed in case of their call please use the name of the person to whom they write, as none will be delivered except on presentation of check. All answers to advertisements should be enclosed in an envelope, and the name of the person to whom they are addressed given. The above rules are published in the columns of the Bee, the circulation of which aggregated 10,000 copies daily, and give the advertiser the benefit, not only of the circulation of THE Bee, but also of CONNELL Bluff, Lincoln and other cities and towns throughout this section of the country.
